CCMB Rights Issue Opens October 12, 2005

- Capital & Credit Merchant Bank (CCMB) will make a renounceable Rights Issue to its shareholders on Wednesday October 12, 2005, as part of its long term strategy to ensure enhancement of shareholder value through the strategic expansion and development of the Bank. A renounceable Rights Issue has the effect of expanding shareholders' rights, as they will have the ability (option) to sell the offer shares to a third party. At the Bank's Annual General Meeting held in May 2005, shareholders approved a resolution authorizing the Board to increase CCMB's share capital from J$300-million to J$400-million by the creation of an additional 200-million additional ordinary shares.

JSE's Best Practices Awards Launch

- The Jamaica Stock Exchange Best Practices Awards were launched on October 13, 2005 at the Hilton Kingston Hotel. Speaking at the event, Marlene Street, JSE's General Manager pointed out that the JSE's Best Practices Awards were "a significant undertaking in light of the many indicators that suggests the importance of exercising high standards in organizations." She said that the JSE wanted to create an awareness of the standards for best practices in the areas to be adjudged and to stimulate stakeholders to aspire to incorporate Best Practices within their organizations. The JSE also wishes to improve the overall conduct of market players leading to increased efficiencies in the industry. Executive Director of the Mona School of Business, Professor Neville Ying is the Chairman of the JSE's Best Practices Awards Committee. Listed companies and stockbrokerages will be judged in Five Areas: Best Practices Annual Report, Best Practices Corporate Disclosure & Investor Relations, Best Practices Investor Relations Awards (Stockbrokerages), Best Performing Companies, Best Practices Website.
