JSE Conference 2006 to Push Regional Investment

• Three heads of state have so far confirmed their participation in the Jamaica Stock Exchange's inaugural regional conference on investments and the capital markets, to be held January 17 to 19, 2006 at the Half Moon Club in Montego Bay. The Prime Ministers are Rt. Hon. P.J. Patterson of Jamaica, Rt. Hon. Owen Arthur of Barbados and Hon. Dr. Kenneth Anthony of St. Lucia. The conference is being staged in association with Oppenheimer & Co., Inc. under the theme: "Creating Investment Opportunities for the Growth and Development of the Region's Capital Markets in a Globalised Environment." Among the list of distinguished speakers are Finance and Planning Minister, Dr. Omar Davies; Chancellor Emeritus, University of the West Indies, Sir Shridath Ramphal; head of the Planning Institute of Jamaica, Dr. Wesley Hughes; Federico Sacasa of Caribbean & Central America Action; Michael Moore of U.S. Securities Exchange Commission; Sam Stovall of Standard and Poors; Alexandre Ibrahim of New York Stock Exchange; Gregory Fisher of Oppenheimer & Co. Inc. and Professor Avinash Persaud of Intelligence Capital.

Meet Sam Stovall one of the JSE's featured speakers for the 2006 Regional Conference

• As chief investment strategist, Sam Stovall serves as analyst, publisher and communicator of S&P's outlooks for the economy, market, sectors and stocks. He is a member of the S&P Investment Policy Committee, where he focuses on market history and valuations, as well as sector and industry recommendations. Sam is also the author of The Standard & Poor's Guide to Sector Investing and "Stovall's Sector Watch," a page on businessweek.com, that identifies sector top-outs and turnarounds. Sam joined Standard & Poor's (S&P) in April 1989. Prior to S&P, he served Editor In Chief at Argus Research, an independent investment research firm in New York City. Sam received an M.B.A. in Finance from New York University and a B.A. in History/Education from Muhlenberg College, in Allentown, Pa. He is also a Certified Financial Planner. The Board of Directors approved an interim dividend of 25 cents per stock unit, payable on January 5, 2006 to stockholders on record as at December 14, 2005.
