Carib Cement - CCCL Investigates the release of 500 tonnes of Cement

- The Caribbean Cement Company Ltd. (CCCL) wishes to inform the public that a full scale investigation has been launched by CCCL into the circumstances surrounding the release into the market of a batch of 500 tonnes of Carib Cement found to exhibit premature setting properties when used to make concrete. The Investigation is aimed at determining the factors that led to the breach of CCCL's rigorous quality standards at the Rockfort Plant and to recommend the appropriate action to prevent a recurrence. On February 23, 2006, when the batch of 500 tonnes of cement was discovered, the company immediately initiated a product recall and suspended further sales pending detailed quality assurance checks. Customers were also advised that the recall and replacement would be at no cost to them.

Carib Cement - Board Movements

- Mr. Parris Lyew Ayea was appointed to the Board of Directors of the CCCL effective February 16, 2006.

NCB - Trading of Shares

- Professor Alvin Wint, Director of NCB, purchased 9,850 ordinary stock units in the company on February 27, 2006.
