Dear Valued Customer,

Please be advised that we will be adjusting our prices effective April 8, 2013 in accordance with the price schedule shown below. Our prices will be increased by an average of 3% across our products. This price change is necessary based on the 5.5% devaluation of the Jamaican Dollar since you were advised of our last price adjustment. As you will see, this correction only seeks to cover those costs directly impacted by the depreciating dollar.
