This price change is necessary based on the continued devaluation of the Jamaican Dollar since our last price adjustment and our constant review of our prices to mitigate against increases in our input costs.

Please be advised that there will be no grace period for the collection of cement at the old price after October 22, 2013. Therefore, it is imperative that all payments for cement made before October 22, be collected before this date, or the new prices will prevail.

We appreciate your understanding and continued support.

Yours sincerely,

F.L.A. Haynes
