Dear Shareholders,

Under the stewardship of the recently established Corporate Governance Committee, the Board undertook an exercise of reviewing its Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association, which have been operative since the company was incorporated in 1962.

The result of the abovementioned exercise was a recommendation that the Company adopt new Articles of Incorporation in order to ensure ongoing compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and to also align the Company's Articles with modern business practices and corporate governance best practices. This would ensure that the Company's Articles are modern in approach to the internal management of the Company and the relationship with and among its shareholders.

After numerous meetings of the Corporate Governance Committee and the Board, including workshops with the Company's independent professional advisors, the Board is pleased to present the attached draft Articles of Incorporation (to be read as a whole with Form 1A and its Schedules), with appended comparative analysis of the existing Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association and Schedule 1 of the draft Articles of Incorporation for your convenience and review.

If after review, you as a shareholder of the Company, deem it appropriate to adopt the new Articles of Incorporation, you may vote to do so when this matter is tabled for your consideration at the Company's Annual General Meeting convened for September 6th, 2017.

Oliver Holmes

Chairman

4. Subject to the provisions of sections 56 and 57 of the Act and to the Rules of any Stock Exchange, the Company may issue shares which by the terms of the issue will be redeemed or, at the option of the Company, are to be liable to be redeemed provided that where by such terms power is reserved to purchase for redemption any such share:
 - (a) purchases not made through any Stock Exchange or by tender shall be limited to a maximum price;
 - (b) if purchases are by tender, tenders shall be available to all shareholders alike.
5. Subject to the provisions of section 58 of the Act and to the Rules of any Stock Exchange, the Company may purchase or otherwise acquire shares issued by it.

 - (b) if purchases are by tender, tenders shall be available to all shareholders alike.
8. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate General Meeting the provisions of these Articles relating to General Meetings shall apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be three persons at the least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class (but so that if at any adjourned meeting of such holders a quorum as above defined is not present, those members who are present shall be a quorum) and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll and, on a poll, shall have one vote for each share of the class of which he is the holder.

 - (1) Except as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as by these Articles or by law otherwise provided or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.
 - (2) The Directors may in their absolute discretion, serve a notice in writing on a member requiring him to make a voluntary statutory declaration within fourteen days of the receipt of the notice as regards the following:

 - (e) Such other information or other facts that may be relevant.
- (3) The Directors may also by such notice require any person seeking to have a share issued or a transfer of a share registered in his name to make a declaration as regards the matters mentioned in Article 12 (2).

- (a) no voting rights shall be exercisable in respect of the relevant shares; and
 - (b) the Directors may withhold payment of any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of the relevant shares.
- (5) The Directors shall cause to be entered against the name of the registered holder of the shares the following:
- (a) the fact that a notice was served on a member or a person pursuant to Articles 12 (2) or (3) and the date on which the notice was served;
 - (b) any information provided pursuant to the notice and the date provided; and

- (7) A member who holds shares or other securities issued by the Company and who is not the sole beneficial owner of such shares or other securities shall comply with such duty of disclosure to the Company in respect of or in connection with the beneficial ownership thereof as may be imposed by law on him.
13. Pursuant to the provisions of section 196 and the Fourteenth Schedule of the Act, each Director shall notify the Company in writing of the number, description, class and amount of any shares or debentures in the Company or its subsidiaries or holding Company or a subsidiary of the Company's holding company which are held by or in trust for him or of any shares or debentures in respect of which he has any right to become the holder by virtue of any contract or assignment or over which he has a right to an option to become the holder thereof and the Company shall pursuant to section 197 of the Act keep a register of information so provided.

CERTIFICATES

14. (1) Every person shall be entitled
- (a) without payment, to one certificate for all his shares of each class and, when part only of the shares comprised in a certificate is sold or transferred, to a new certificate for the remainder of the shares so comprised, or

- (b) upon payment of such sum, being a reasonable sum which the Directors shall from time to time determine, to several certificates, each for one or more of his shares of any class.
- (2) Subject to the Rules of any Stock Exchange, every certificate shall be issued within thirty days after allotment or lodgment of transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide), shall be under the Seal, shall bear the autographic signatures of one Director and the Secretary (which may be reproduced by Electronic means for the purpose unless the Directors resolve otherwise) and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon, and the distinguishing numbers (if any). In the case of shares deposited by a member in a licensed central securities depository and thereafter transferred, evidence as to the transferee's title to such shares shall be provided in accordance with the Rules of any Stock Exchange. Provided that the Company shall not be bound to register more than four persons as the joint holders of any share (except in the case of executors or trustees of a deceased member) and in respect of a share held jointly by several persons the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
15. If a share certificate be defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of such reasonable sum as the Directors may prescribe provided that such fee shall not exceed that permitted by the Rules of any Stock Exchange and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the Company of investigating evidence as the Directors think fit.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

16. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may give financial assistance to any person by means of a loan, guarantee or otherwise:
- (a) in the ordinary course of business, if the lending of money is part of the ordinary business of the Company;
 - (b) on account of expenditure incurred or to be incurred on behalf of the Company;
 - (c) to a holding body corporate if the Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of the holding body corporate;
 - (d) to any of the Company's subsidiaries; or
 - (e) to employees of the Company to enable them to purchase shares in an employee share ownership plan approved under the Employee Share Ownership Plan Act.

LIEN

17. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) registered in the name of a member (whether solely or jointly with others) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) due by him or his estate, either alone or jointly with any other person, to the Company; but the Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon and bonuses which may be declared in respect of such shares, provided always that if the Company shall register a transfer of any shares upon which it has a lien as aforesaid without giving to the transferee notice of its claim the said shares shall be freed and discharged from the lien of the Company.
18. The Directors may sell on behalf of the Company, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.

19. To give effect to any such sale the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the share(s) sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the share(s) comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
20. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be received by the Company and applied first in the payment of all costs of such sale, and next in or towards payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

21. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times. Each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine.
22. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments.
23. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
24. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate as the Directors may determine but not exceeding a maximum rate to be fixed by the Directors, and if such maximum rate is not so fixed, the maximum rate shall be 10 per cent per annum, but the Directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
25. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, shall for the purposes of these Articles, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
26. The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
27. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any share held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the Company in General Meeting shall otherwise direct) 6 per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the member paying such sum in advance. No such sum paid in advance of calls shall entitle the member paying such sum to any portion of a dividend declared in respect of any period prior to the date upon which such sum would, but for such payment, become presently payable.

28. No member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present or to vote on any question either personally or by proxy, at any General Meeting or upon a poll, or to be reckoned in a quorum whilst any call or other sum shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of any of the shares held by him, whether alone or jointly with any other person.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

29. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.
30. (1) Subject to such of the restrictions of these Articles as may be applicable, any member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Directors may approve.
- (2) The Directors may (and shall, if required by the Rules of any Stock Exchange) subject to such proper safeguards as they shall determine, authorize the Secretary or transfer agent of the Company to certify any instrument of transfer of shares in or debentures of the Company against certificates lodged.
31. The Directors may decline to register the transfer of a share (not being a fully paid share) and they may decline to register the transfer of a share on which the Company has a lien.
32. The Directors may also decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless:-
- (a) The instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person so to do); and
- (b) The instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share.
33. If the Directors refuse to register a transfer in accordance with these Articles they shall within three months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal.
34. The registration of transfers may be suspended and the Register closed at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year.
35. Unless prohibited by the Rules of any Stock Exchange, the Company shall be entitled to charge a fee to be determined by the Directors on the registration of a transfer or of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, notice in lieu of distringas, or other instrument affecting the title to any share or other security issued by the Company.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

36. In case of the death of a member the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
37. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that member before his death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.

38. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.
39. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company. Provided always that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

40. If a member fails to pay any call or installment on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
41. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
42. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect.
43. When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the holder of the share, or the person entitled to the share by transmission, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register, but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any failure to give such notice or make such entry as aforesaid.
44. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.
45. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, together with interest thereon at such rate as the Directors may think fit but not exceeding a maximum rate to be fixed by the Directors, and if such maximum rate is not so fixed, the maximum rate shall be 10 per cent per annum, from the date of the forfeiture until payment, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.

46. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, or alternatively, an entry in the Minute Book of the Company of the forfeiture of any shares or that shares have been sold to satisfy a lien of the Company, shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale re-allotment or other disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold re-allotted or otherwise disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share. The remedy of the former holder of such shares and of any person claiming under or through him shall be against the Company and in damages only. The provisions of these Articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

47. The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares.
48. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; and the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable provided that such minimum shall not exceed the amount of shares from which the stock arose.
49. The stock shall confer on the holders thereof respectively the same privileges and advantages, as regards participation in profits and voting at meetings of the Company, and for other purposes, as would have been conferred by shares of equal amount in the capital of the Company of the same class as the shares from which such stock was converted, but so that none of such privileges or advantages, except the participation in profits of the Company, or in assets of the Company on a winding up, shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of stock, as would not, if existing in shares, have conferred such privileges or advantages. No such conversion shall affect or prejudice any preference or other special privilege attached to the shares so converted. Save as aforesaid, all provisions herein contained shall, so far as circumstances will admit, apply to stock as well as to shares.
50. Such of the Articles of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

51. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe or may from time to time increase the maximum number of shares that the Company is authorized to issue.
52. Subject to the other provisions of these Articles the shares shall be at the disposal of the Board, which may allot or otherwise dispose of them to such persons (including any Directors), at such times and for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the Directors may determine.

53. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these Articles, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and installments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, and otherwise. Unless otherwise provided in accordance with these Articles, the new shares shall be ordinary shares.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

54. (1) The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution:
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares, or
 - (b) subdivide its shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount subject nevertheless to the provisions of section 65 (1) (d) of the Act and so that the resolution whereby any shares are subdivided may determine that as between the resulting shares one or more of such shares may be given any preference or advantage as regards dividend, capital, voting or otherwise over the others or any other of such shares, or be subject to any such restrictions as compared to the others or any other of such shares as the Company has power to attach to unissued or new shares.
 - (c) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its stated capital account by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
- (2) Upon any consolidation of fully paid shares into shares of larger amount the Directors may settle any difficulty which may arise with regard thereto and in particular may as between the holders of shares so consolidated determine which shares are consolidated into each consolidated share and in the case of any shares registered in the name of one holder (or joint holders) being consolidated with shares registered in the name of another holder (or joint holders) may make such arrangements for the allocation, acceptance or sale of the consolidated share and for the distribution of any moneys received in respect thereof as may be thought fit and for the purpose of giving effect thereto may appoint some person to transfer the consolidated share or any fractions thereof to the appropriate person and to receive the purchase price thereof and any transfer executed in pursuance thereof shall be effective and after such transfer has been registered no person shall be entitled to question its validity.
55. Subject to the provisions of section 70 of the Act, the Company may purchase its own shares out of profits available for distribution or out of a fresh issue of shares for the purpose of an employee share ownership plan approved under the Employee Share Ownership Plan Act.
56. Subject to section 71 of the Act, the Company may by special resolution reduce its stated capital or its capital redemption reserve account in any manner authorized by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

57. The Company shall in each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Company and that of the next. Provided that so long as the Company holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint.
58. All General Meetings other than the Annual General Meeting shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

59. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting. An Extraordinary General Meeting shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists as provided by section 128 of the Act in the manner set out therein. If at any time there are not in Jamaica sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director or any two members of the Company may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

60. An Annual General Meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice in Writing at the least, and a meeting of the Company other than an Annual General Meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by fourteen days' notice in Writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the Company, entitled to receive such notices from the Company. Provided that a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:-
- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the Annual General Meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.
61. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

62. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of:
- (a) declaring a dividend;

 - (c) the election of Directors in the place of those retiring; and,
 - (d) the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.

66. If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
67. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, seven clear days' notice at the least of the adjourned meeting shall be given specifying the place and the time of the meeting as in the case of an original meeting, but it shall not be necessary to specify in such notice the nature of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
68. At a General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:-

69. Except as provided in Article 71, if a poll is duly demanded (and the demand be not withdrawn) it shall be taken in such manner and at such time (within fourteen days) and place as the chairman of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
70. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
71. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs (but within fourteen days of such demand), and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

72. (a) Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.
- (b) No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of the shares in the Company have been paid.
- (c) Subject to the provision of the Act, and provided that this article shall not apply while the Company's shares are listed on a stock exchange, a resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to receive notice and to attend and vote at general meetings (or being corporations by their duly authorized representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held. Any such resolution in writing may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of such members. For the purpose of this Article signed shall be construed to include Electronic Signature.
73. On a poll taken at a meeting of the Company or a meeting of any class of members of the Company, a member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all of his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
74. In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.
75. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, receiver, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee, receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court, and any such committee, receiver, or curator bonis or other person may on a poll vote by proxy, provided that such evidence as the Directors may require of the authority of the person claiming to vote shall have been deposited at the registered office of the Company (or such other place designated for the deposit of instruments appointing a proxy as is specified in the notice convening the meeting at which such person proposes to vote) not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or for the taking of the poll at which it is desired to vote.
76. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is or may be given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
77. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under seal, or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorized. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. Every notice convening a meeting of the Company shall state that a member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not be a member of the Company.
78. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy, of that power or authority shall be deposited

Signed this _____ day of _____, 20____
This form is to be used *in favour of / against the resolution.
Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy will vote as he thinks fit.

*Strike out whichever is not desired.

81. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

82. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at the office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

but any act done in good faith by a Director whose office is vacated as aforesaid shall be valid unless, prior to the doing of such act, written notice shall have been served upon the Company or an entry shall have been made in the Directors' Minute Book stating that such Director has ceased to be a Director of the Company.

ROTATION OF DIRECTORS

101. (1) At each Annual General Meeting of the Company one-third of the Directors for the time being (or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to, but not greater than one-third) shall retire from office, provided that a Director appointed to the office of Managing Director shall not while holding that office be subject to retirement by rotation or be taken into account in determining the number of directors to retire in each year. A Director retiring at a meeting shall retain office until the close or adjournment of the meeting.
- (2) The Directors to retire in every year pursuant to the preceding Article shall include so far as necessary any Director who by reason of age is due to retire at that meeting and any Director who wishes to retire and not to offer himself for re-election. Any further Directors so to retire shall be those of the other Directors subject to retirement by rotation who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.
102. Subject to Article 100 (h), no person shall be elected, re-elected, appointed or re-appointed a Director if at the time of his proposed election, re-election, appointment or re-appointment he has attained the age of seventy-two years.
103. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.
104. The Company at the meeting at which a retiring Director retires in manner aforesaid may fill the vacated office by electing thereto the retiring Director or some other eligible person, and in default the retiring Director shall, if eligible, and if offering himself for re-election be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office or unless a resolution for the re-election of such Director shall have been put to the meeting and lost.
105. No person other than a retiring Director shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for election to the office of Director at any General Meeting unless not less than seven nor more than fourteen days before the date appointed for the meeting (or such other period as may be prescribed by the Rules of any Stock Exchange) there shall have been left at the registered office of the Company notice in writing, signed by a member duly qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of his intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing signed by the proposed person of his willingness to be elected.

106. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase or reduce the number of Directors and may also determine in what rotation the increased or reduced number is to go out of office.
107. The Directors shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint any person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed in accordance with these regulations. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Annual General Meeting, and shall then be eligible for re-election but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.
108. The Company may by ordinary resolution of which special notice has been given in accordance with section 179 of the Act, remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office notwithstanding anything in these Articles or in any agreement between the Company and such Director. Such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim such Director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.
109. The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of a Director removed from office under the immediate preceding Article and without prejudice to the powers of the Directors under Article 107 the Company in General Meeting may appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director. A person appointed in place of a Director so removed or to fill such a vacancy shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a Director on the day on which the Director in whose place he is appointed was last elected as a Director.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

110. The Directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. A Director may, and the Secretary on a requisition of a director shall, at any time summon a meeting of the Directors. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director for the time being absent from Jamaica.
111. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors, and unless so fixed shall be one-third of the number of directors and shall include at least one of the directors designated by the Board as independent directors. For the purposes of this Article, an alternate appointed by a Director shall be counted in a quorum at a meeting at which the Director appointing him is not present.
112. The continuing Directors or sole continuing Director may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to these Articles as the necessary quorum of Directors, the continuing Directors or Director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number, or of summoning a General Meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.
113. Any Director may, by writing under his hand, appoint any person who is approved by the majority of the Directors, to be his alternate to act in his place at any meeting of the Directors at which he is unable to be present. Every such alternate shall (subject to his giving to the Company an address in Jamaica at which notices may be served upon him) be entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors and to attend and vote thereat as a Director when the person appointing him is not personally present and generally to perform all the functions of his appointer as a Director in the absence of such appointer and where he is a Director to have separate vote on behalf of the Director he is representing in addition to his own vote. A Director may at any time in writing revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him.

An alternate Director shall ipso facto cease to be an Alternate Director (i) on the happening of any event, which if he were a Director, would have resulted in his having vacated such office by operation of Article 100, or (ii) if his appointer ceases for any reason to be a Director. Every such alternate shall be an officer of the Company and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him. The remuneration of such an alternate shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the Director appointing him, and the proportion thereof shall be agreed between them. An alternate need not hold any share qualification.

114. The Directors may elect a chairman and deputy chairman and determine the period for which each is to hold office; but if no such chairman or deputy chairman is elected, or if at any meeting neither the chairman nor the deputy chairman is present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
115. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit. Any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Directors. Save as aforesaid the meetings and proceedings of a committee consisting more than one member shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles regulating the proceedings and meetings of the Directors.
116. All acts done at any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it shall afterwards be discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such Directors or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified and had continued to be a Director, and had been entitled to be a Director.
117. Provided that this Article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person of whose address the Company is not aware or to more than one of the joint holders of any shares or debentures. CAPITALIZATION OF PROFITS

142. provision by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as they think fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorize any person to enter on behalf of all the members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalization or (as the case may require) for the payment up by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalized, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such members.

DISTRIBUTION OF CAPITAL ASSETS

144. The Company in General Meeting may at any time and from time to time resolve that any surplus moneys in the hands of the Company representing capital profits arising from the receipt of moneys received or recovered in respect of or arising from the realization of any capital assets of the Company or any investment representing the same and not required for the payment or provision of any fixed preferential dividend instead of being applied in the purchase of other capital assets or for other capital purposes be distributed amongst the ordinary shareholders on the footing that they receive the same as capital and in the shares and proportions in which they would have been entitled to receive the same if it had been distributed by way of dividend provided always that no such profit as aforesaid shall be so distributed unless there shall remain in the hands of the Company a sufficiency of other assets to answer in full the whole of the liabilities and paid-up share capital of the Company for the time being.
