

C2W Music Limited's board of directors have officially resigned as of July 10th, the old board was comprised of Derek Wilkie, Ivan Berry, Kristine Gibbon-Thompson, Maxime Gousse, Clyde McKenzie and Lowell Dunbar. The board for SSL Venture Capital Jamaica Limited as of July 10, 2018 is comprised of:

Mr. Mark Croskery (Non-Executive Chairman): Mr. Croskery is currently an Executive Director at Stocks and Securities Barbados Limited with a focus on growth strategies and Capital Markets. Prior to his current post Mr. Croskery served as President & Chief Executive Officer at Stocks and Securities Limited from 2007-2018. Under his leadership SSL has grown into a leading provider of private wealth management, financial planning products, and services for retail customers and SMEs.

Mr. Gerald Wight (Independent Non-Executive Director): Mr. Wight brings a wealth of international financial services experience to the Board having held leadership roles at banks in the Caribbean and the United States. Other Board positions include ProFin, an investment bank licensed by the Central Bank of Haiti, and Caribbean Investor Capital S.A., a private equity fund. Mr. Wight completed his MBA at Florida International University and has a Law Degree from the University of Wolverhampton (Distance Learning).

Mr. Sheldon Powe (Independent Non-Executive Director): Former Group Chief Information Officer at JMMB. In his position as Head of the Technology Unit, he had a mandate to ensure a stable and secure electronic platform for the ongoing provision of services that enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of the JMMB Group of Companies. Mr. Powe now acts as a technology consultant and runs his own technology incubation lab providing guidance for young entrepreneurs.

Mr. Drew Gray (Executive Director / Chief Executive Officer): Mr. Gray as assumed the post of Chief Executive Officer at SSL Venture Capital Jamaica Ltd . In his capacity as CEO Mr. Gray focuses on working with the companies the SSL Ventures portfolio by executing agreed upon business and financial goals and ultimately exploring viable exit strategies. Prior to joining SSL Ventures, Mr. Gray worked as an Associate Director for Group Risk Management – Wholesale Credit at the Royal Bank of Canada.