

April 16, 2020

EXTENSION FOR FILING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND COMMUNICATION WITH THE JSE

To All Listed Companies

Further to our extension notice dated March 18, 2020, the Jamaica Stock Exchange wishes to advise of the decision to allow listed companies an additional thirty (30) days, resulting in a total of forty-five (45 days) extension for the submission of annual, audited and quarterly reports that are due for the period March to April 2020.

Listed companies are reminded that in order to access this extension, they are required in accordance with the rules of the Exchange to provide a notice to the JSE concerning the circumstances and the probable extent of the delay. Listed Companies are also required to simultaneously place an advertisement in the print media, advising shareholders of the delay and to comply with the general restrictions on dealings during this period. Please note that in an effort to ensure the dissemination of information to the wider public, listed companies may also consider, in addition to placing an advertisement in the print media, posting their delay notice through other channels.

For further guidance in treating with delays, please refer to JSE Main Market Rule 407-Quarterly Financial Statements, JSE Main Market Rule 408 – Audited Annual Financial Statements and JSE Appendix 7, Section 4 – General Restrictions on Dealings. As it relates to the Junior Market, please refer to JSE Junior Market Rule Appendix 2, Part 4 (1) (a) (iv) Quarterly Financial Statements, JSE Junior Market Rule Appendix 2, Part 4 (2) (d) and JSE Junior Market Rule Appendix 2, Part 8, Section 4 – General Restrictions on Dealings.

Yours truly

JAMAICA STOCK EXCHANGE

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Marlene Street Forrest', is written over a light blue horizontal line.

Marlene Street Forrest
Managing Director