SPECIAL RESOLUTION

5. To amend the Articles of Incorporation

The Company is asked to consider, and if thought fit, pass the following special resolution:

Resolution No. 6

"That the Articles of Incorporation of the Company be and are hereby amended by revisions to Schedule 2 as shown below:

Amending Article 2 under the heading "Interpretation" definition "Electronic Means" to read

"Electronic Means - means any method of dispatch or communication of video and audio including live stream or broadcast, documents, words, writing, maps, photography, graphs, plans or other data which involves the use of equipment or technology having electrical, digital, magnetic, wireless, optical, electromagnetic, photographic, or similar capabilities including but not limited to telephonic facilities including facsimile machines, electronic mail sent via computers, mobile or scanning devices, instant messages via mobile devices, short message services or via the internet.

Where in these Articles it is provided that members may attend a meeting of the company by electronic means or by way of live stream or broadcast, the relevant computer programme or software (including webcasting, videoconferencing, teleconferencing, a combination of those and/or other electronic platforms) must allow members access to see and hear the proceedings; ask questions; vote electronically (including before and during the meeting and by proxy); and in all respects fully participate and exercise such rights, subject to the Chairman's directions for the orderly conduct of the meeting.

Insertion of new Articles numbered 56, 57 and 58 to read

56. The Company may hold its annual general meeting or any extraordinary general meeting in any of the following manners:
 - a) Members present at the same physical venue; or
 - b) Members present at a physical venue together with members in attendance by electronic means;

- or
- c) Members in attendance entirely by electronic means.
57. A member who participated in a meeting in accordance with Article 56 shall (notwithstanding being absent from the Island or otherwise remote from the venue of the meeting) be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be counted in the quorum for and be entitled to vote at the meeting.
58. Any failure of technology or any failure or inability of a member to remain in any meeting convened in accordance with Article 56 shall not invalidate any resolutions passed or proceedings taken at such meeting provided that a quorum is present at all times.

Amending Article 74 under the heading "Votes By Proxy" to read

On a poll votes may be given either personally, by proxy or by the established electronic means (as communicated through the relevant notices, to include e-mail instructions and any other electronic means of instructions for any such meeting) but no member shall be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend the same meeting.

Amending Article 142 to read

Any notice to be given or any document required to be sent by the Company to any member may be:-

1. (a) sent to him personally in writing or by electronic format;
- (b) sent by post to him or to his registered address, or (if he has no registered address within Jamaica) to the address if any, within Jamaica supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notice to him in writing or electronic format; or
- (c) sent to him by electronic means; or
- (d) sent to him by advertisement in a daily newspaper circulating in Jamaica; or
- (e) sent to him by publishing such notice on the company's website and/or such other websites available to public companies from time to time for the dissemination of information.

PROVIDED HOWEVER that where such notice or document is specifically required by law or these Articles to be sent in writing (otherwise than in electronic format, by electronic means, by advertisement or on a website) the Company shall obtain the member's written consent prior to sending same to him in electronic format, by electronic means, by advertisement or on a website.

2. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case of a notice of a meeting at the expiration of forty-eight (48) hours after the letter containing the same is posted, and in any other case at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

3. Where a notice or document is sent by electronic means service of the notice or document shall be deemed to be effected by properly dispatching the notice or document to the email address, any other electronic address or by facsimile, internet, or by short message service to the number provided by the member, and is deemed to be received by the intended recipient at the expiration of twenty-four (24) hours after the notice or document is so dispatched by the Company.
4. Where a notice is published in a daily newspaper it shall be deemed to be served on the date of publication.
5. Where a notice is published on the company's website or such other websites available to public companies from time to time for dissemination of information the notice shall be deemed to be served on the date on which the notice is published on such website.
