

Press Release:

Scotiabank

- Jeffrey Hall retires, Anya Schnoor appointed Chair of Scotia Group

Kingston Jamaica- November 22, 2022: After fifteen years of distinguished service to its Board of Directors, including six years as Chair, Jeffrey Hall will be retiring from the board of Scotia Group Jamaica Limited (SGJL), effective December 9, 2022.

During his tenure on the Board, Jeffrey brought significant insight and expertise to the role while providing the management team guidance and support as the bank navigated the changing economic environment locally. He was instrumental in promoting a strong corporate governance and risk culture throughout the Bank and was an advocate for the Bank's role in supporting its customers and communities, especially during the last two years as the country faced the challenging effects of the global pandemic.

In commenting on his retirement Jeffrey Hall said "It has been an honour to serve on the Board of SGJL amongst such an esteemed group of directors. Scotiabank is an extraordinary institution which has contributed much over its 133-year history to the development of the Jamaican economy and the lives of millions of individual customers. I have the highest confidence in the management and staff as they continue to drive the company forward and wish the Bank continued success in the future".

The Board of Directors, management and staff of Scotiabank wish to express our sincere gratitude to Jeffrey for his vision, stewardship and commitment to excellence and wish him well in his future endeavours.

With this announcement, we are pleased to advise that the Board of Directors of SGJL has appointed Anya Schnoor to succeed Jeffrey as the Chair of SGJL. Anya is a current Board Member of SGJL and is also the Executive Vice President for the Caribbean, Central America, and Uruguay region at Scotiabank. In her executive role, Anya leads the development of the overall strategic direction for the Bank's personal, commercial, corporate, wealth, and insurance operations in the region.

Anya joined Scotiabank in Jamaica in 2006 and has held progressively senior roles across the Bank. Her experience in the financial services sector in the Caribbean spans more than 30 years in the areas of wealth management, insurance, and banking. She is also a member of the International Women's Forum (IWF), an organization dedicated to supporting the next generation of women leaders. She has extensive directorship and stewardship experience in Jamaica, the Caribbean Region and internationally.

Commenting on her appointment, Anya Schnoor said "It is my absolute pleasure to be appointed as Chair of the Board of Scotia Group Jamaica. I want to personally thank Jeffrey for his invaluable contribution over the past fifteen years and for helping to position Scotiabank for long-term success. I look forward to continuing to work with my fellow Directors and the team in Scotiabank to deliver strong value to our shareholders and customers and contribute to the growth and development of Jamaica".

For media queries, contact:

Yanique Forbes-Patrick | Public Affairs and Communications

Yanique.forbes-patrick@scotiabank.com

About Scotiabank

Scotiabank is a leading bank in the Americas. Guided by our purpose: "for every future", we help our customers, their families and their communities achieve success through a broad range of advice, products, and services, including personal and commercial banking, wealth management and private banking, corporate and investment banking, and capital markets. With a team of over 90,000 employees and assets of approximately $1.3 trillion (as at July 31, 2022), Scotiabank trades on the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX: BNS) and New York Stock Exchange (NYSE: BNS). For more information, please visit <http://www.scotiabank.com> and follow us on Twitter @Scotiabak.